ABOUT ME

A questioning and fast-learning Medicine student at Ege University, with a top 3 ranking for two consecutive years (2018-2020), along with experience in education and internship abroad. Possesses a keen eye for detail and delivers high-quality work. Aiming to pursue a career in Neuroscience with a focus on cognitive, evolutionary, and social areas, driven by a deep curiosity of the intricacies of the human mind. My goal is to uncover the underlying scientific explanations behind every thought and act, enriching our understanding of ourselves.

HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

Literature

An avid poet, finding inspiration in life's experiences and emotions. I enjoy exploring themes of solitude, introspection and the human cognition through verse.

Music

Passionate about playing drums and honing skills, playing for 4 years.

Photography

Developed an interest in photography and enjoy capturing aesthetically pleasing images of everyday subjects, occasionally sharing them on social media.
